RULE 20(a) Pet. No. 2012-1045

RESTRAINING ORDER

On or about May 17, 2012, the Office of General Counsel of the Alabama State Bar filed a Petition for an Interim and Summary Suspension pursuant to Rule 20(a)(2)(i) and 8(e), Alabama Rules of Disciplinary Procedure.. Having considered the Petition for Interim and Summary Suspension and the attached affidavit, the Disciplinary Commission finds that Clark is engaging in continuing conduct which is causing, or is likely to cause, immediate and serious injury to a client or the public. As such, it is hereby ORDERED that Jennifer Paige Clark be, and she is hereby, interimly suspended from the practice of law pursuant to the provisions of Rule 20(a), Ala. R. Disc. P., as promulgated by the Supreme Court of Alabama, and it is further ORDERED that Jennifer Paige Clark be, and she is hereby, restricted from maintaining an attorney trust account at any financial institution, this order being subject to the dissolution and amendment provisions of Rule 20(a).

ORDERED that the Disciplinary Clerk shall cause a copy of this order to be served upon Clark, by United States mail, postage prepaid, and by Sheriff.

DONE this the 17 of May, 2012.

RE: Complaints against J. Anthony McLain and Robert Lusk

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Clark:

The complaints that you filed against the above named lawyers were forwarded to the Disciplinary Commission for review and final determination.

The Disciplinary Commission has completed its review and consideration of these matters, and has determined that there is insufficient basis for a finding that there has been a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct. Accordingly, the Disciplinary Commission has dismissed the complaints and will not consider any further complainants regarding this matter.

Be advised that the Disciplinary Commission considers every complaint that comes before this Commission a very serious matter and gives each complaint all due review and deliberation.

Sincerely,

W.N. "Rocky" Watson, Chairman
Disciplinary Commission
Alabama State Bar
